

Living with COVID-19: Practice Preparedness for COVID - Lessons from the East coast

Presented by WA Primary Health Alliance

General practice teams in WA are invited to join WAPHA for an afternoon of interactive learning and networking. Aimed at Practice Managers, Practice Nurses and Practice Admin staff, this session will be centred around the question - "What can be done to prepare before widespread COVID hits WA?"

We invite you to submit your questions for discussion at the session.

Event Information

When: Wednesday, 23rd February 2022

Where: Online

Time: 1 - 2pm

Register online at: <https://bit.ly/3uBWWQK>

Presenters

- Sharon Good, Primary Care Navigation Manager
- Sam McMillan, Primary Care QI Manager
- Grainne McCarthy, Digital Health Project Officer

For more information, contact the Training & Communities of Practice team at Training.CoP@wapha.org.au or 0457 658 589