

Free Event: What's new in heart failure? Case studies for southeast metropolitan GP Practices

Join East Metropolitan Health Service and WA Primary Health Alliance (WAPHA) for an interactive session focused on sharing experience and understanding in the management of patients with multimorbidity across health service providers, with a focus on chronic heart failure (CHF).

Follow the LINK or QR code to register.

Last chance to reserve your spot is Friday 19 May 2023.

Event will be endorsed for continuing education through RACGP.

Date: Wednesday 24 May 2023	Location: Avocados Perth Function Centre  2 Mount Street Kelmscott WA 6111	Format: In-person event with interactive discussion
Time: 5:30pm networking & food; 6:00pm start, 8:00pm Completion		Cost: Free event

Cocktail food will be provided throughout the event, noting alcohol will not be included.

Event Schedule

- 1 Arrival, food and introductions
- 2 Speaker 1: Hospital representative Dr Suganthan
- 3 Speaker 2: GP representative Dr Lewis MacKinnon
- 4 Opportunities for engagement: Current projects
- 5 Discussion and Conclusion

Event Presenters

Dr Lewis MacKinnon

Dr Lewis MacKinnon is the owner and principal GP at Skye Medical Armadale. Dr MacKinnon is an elected member of the WA RACGP committee as Deputy Chair and Clinical Examiner, and notably earned RACGP (WA) GP of the Year award 2019.

Dr Path Suganthan

Dr Path Suganthan is a senior consultant general physician at Armadale Health Service, which he has been working at since 2014. His previous experience includes working for cardiometabolic clinic at Royal Perth Hospital, with a strong passion in comprehensive cardiovascular risk management and cardiac failure.

