

Does my patient have a drinking problem?

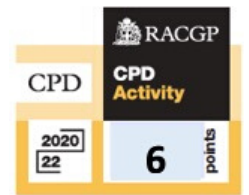

A seminar covering screening, detox, pharmacotherapies and relapse prevention

- Recognise alcohol related harm.
- Create a comfortable and effective way to assess the nature and impact of a patient's alcohol use.
- Understand best practice for alcohol detoxification and pharmacotherapies use and strategies for relapse prevention.
- Identify the most appropriate community based services for the patient's needs and how to refer to these services.

Program

8:30-9:00am	Registration
9:00-9:30am	Create a comfortable and effective way to assess the nature and impact of a patient's alcohol use.
9:30-10:30am	Detoxification, pharmacotherapies and relapse prevention
10:30-10:45am	Morning tea
10:45-11:15am	Drug and Alcohol Services
11:15-12:00pm	Case discussions

FREE
for GPs and practice nurses

Presenter:

Dr Wendy Lawrance, Addiction Medicine Specialist

Chair:

Professor Moira Sim

Register through Eventbrite

<https://tadpolealcohol.eventbrite.com>

Details:

Saturday, 14 November 2020
Type 1 Diabetes Family Centre
11 Limosa Close
Stirling

Morning tea included

