

We are recruiting general practitioners for our study looking at the role of physiotherapy services in treating the physical health of people with serious mental illness. In particular, we are looking at referral patterns and the barriers to and enablers of access to physiotherapy services for these people.

GENERAL PRACTITIONERS NEEDED

How can you help?

Participate in a focus group interviews with colleagues or a one on one interview.

Each participant will receive $100

- Time contribution: ~60 minutes
- Venues: Facility in Southwest WA or Curtin University, or via online platform
- Date and time: To be confirmed
- Refreshments will be provided for face to face

Who do you contact?

Eleanor Andrew (School of Physiotherapy and Exercise Science)
Eleanor.andrew@graduate.curtin.edu.au

Curtin University Human Research Ethics Committee (HREC) has approved this study (HRE2020-0641).